Pond Hill Cemetery
Wysox PA

Historian Edward Hoagland describes Pond Hill Cemetery as prominently situated on a knoll over-looking the picturesque body of water bearing its name. The lake was originally known as Allen's Pond, after Jesse Allen, an original settler. Later it became known as Pond Hill by the old timers, though officially renamed Lake Wesauking.